The vote for Burgess and Council is not so large as for the balance of the ticket—a considerable number being unable, by the Corporation regulations, to vote for that portion of the ticket.

The Lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association, on Monday evening last, was delivered by the Rev. S. G. Grier, of Chambersburg. "Revelation" was his topic, and was discussed in a manner highly interesting to a numerous audience.

DAVID WILKS, Esq., will conclude the series of Lectures for the season, this evening, in the German Reformed Church; his subject: "The North-west Passage; its Ventures and its Victims."

Destructive Fire. We regret to announce that the valuable Flouring Mill of DANIEL DREH, Esq., a short distance west of New Oxford, on the Turnpike, was entirely destroyed by fire on Thursday night last, about midnight. The miller was aroused from his slumbers by the smoke and heat, and only saved his life by leaping from a second-story window. One hundred barrels of flour, and about 1200 bushels of wheat, and other grain, principally belonging to farmers in the neighborhood, were destroyed in the mill. There was no insurance, and the loss is heavy. The origin of the fire is not known.

A Cut Home.—Replying to the taunt of the South Carolina Senator, Mr. Hammond—that Northern free white laborers are no better than "slaves"—Mr. Wade, of Ohio, on Saturday, retorted: "As to the degraded class alluded to by the Senator, he admitted their existence, but he contended that they were mostly foreigners—the sweepings of the Old World, ignorant and vicious—but nevertheless good Democrats, and the principal supporters of slavery in the North. Slaves in their own country, they naturally attach themselves to slaveholders in this."

Hal, the convict who was wounded in an effort to kill a guard in the Illinois penitentiary, has since died.

The Eclipse.—The late eclipse of the sun was satisfactorily observed by the astronomers at the Cambridge Observatory. Several spots, it is stated, are now on the sun's disc, three of which are large, and one very large. They will continue visible about a week longer.

Horrible Affair. Five Persons Burned to Death.—A horrible affair occurred at New Philadelphia, Tuscarawas county, Ohio, a few days ago. A young man named Gray arrived there recently from Iowa, with his sister, who was disarranged, intending to stop there a few days till he could make the necessary arrangements to take her to the insane asylum at Columbus. The sister was placed in a lock up near the town, for safe keeping. During the night a neighbor discovered smoke issuing from the lock-up, and gave the alarm. Before any aid arrived the building was wrapped in flames. Miss Gray, two women, a girl about fifteen, and a young man, who were confined in the building, perished in the flames.

Railroad Accident.—On Wednesday night Henderson Dougherty, a citizen of Columbia, conductor on a freight train on the Penna. Railroad, was killed on the road in West Philadelphia. He was walking by the cars, and to avoid a train stopped, as he thought, from the track, instead of which he crossed to that on which the train was approaching, and was knocked down; the cars passing over both his legs, cutting them off. He was taken to the Hospital and died shortly afterwards. His remains were taken to Columbia in the Emigrant train on Thursday night.

A Challenge. The New Orleans Crescent says that Mr. Paul Murphy, President of the New Orleans Chess Club, and the king of the American chess players, has sent a challenge, through a committee of the club, to Mr. Howard Stanley, chess editor of the London Illustrated News, and acknowledged king of the European chess-players, to visit New Orleans, and engage in a tilt with him for a wager of $5000 a side; the winner of the first eleven games to be the victor; the limit of time to each move, thirty minutes; Mr. Stanley to have the right, if he wishes, to sit twice a day, four hours at each sitting; and should he lose, to be allowed $1000 to cover his expenses in coming to New Orleans and returning to London. The challenge has been only forwarded, with the above and other liberal propositions distinctly stated in it.

Low State of Morals among some Southern Members of Congress. When Mr. Senator Douglas laid before the Senate the defalcation of the Chicago postmaster, it is reported that—"Mr. Senator Toombs replied: that he should vote for him if proved to be the greatest thief and rogue in the country, in order to vindicate the principle which the President has asserted."

And when an avalanche of facts was brought before a member of the House, on our Kansas Investigating Committee, that member, Mr. Letcher, of Virginia, was reported to have said:—

"They are of no importance: that he didn't doubt the frauds charged, but that the committee in Congress had nothing to do with them."

Comment is scarcely necessary,—for such men must have a sectional hydrophobia before they can fall into such a rabid state of madness.

Consideration that the democrats have nearly two-thirds of each branch of the Legislature, the fact that a governor of their party should be obliged to veto about one-fourth of all the bills passed does not speak well for their legislative capacity.

Result of the Summer Court Martial. It is stated that the result of the recent court-martial upon Col. Sumner, at Carlisle Barracks, was the acquittal of Col. S. upon both the charges preferred against him by Gen. Harney. The Secretary of War, it is also stated, dissects from the finding of the court, on the ground that the note sent was clearly, in his opinion, a challenge.

We learn that Thomas Washington Smith, who was acquitted of the murder of Richard Carter, on the ground of insanity at the time of commission of the act, is now a confirmed maniac. His condition is a source of much regret to his friends.

The Bank of Weldon, Va., has resumed specie payments on all outstanding notes, an example that all the banks in Virginia, for their own credit, should follow at once.

A Clergyman Killed.—Rev. Jacob Kreider, well known throughout the country as a Methodist preacher, was killed in Lancaster county, Pa., on Monday, by the falling of the limb of a tree his son was engaged in cutting down.

New-paper a Widow's Right.—A Vermont judge of probate has incorporated it as a part of the law of his court, that the administrator of an estate must allow the widow the cost of a newspaper, she making her own selection from the common fund. The common law of America now recognizes the newspaper as a family and individual necessity. It is classed with pig and potatoes, cassiope and calico, a thing to be exemplified like the family Bible, never to suffer from rapacious creditors, never to be read with in the direst poverty.

The Boston Ledger says that:—"On the 23d ultimo, a passenger came to Portland by the steamer Anglo Saxon, and took lodgings at one of the city hotels. Next morning he took cars for Boston in company with a gentleman who had remained at the same house with him over night, with whose countenance he, somehow or other, imagined himself familiar. They got into conversation in coming down the Eastern railroad, but nothing transpired to elicit the fact whether or no they had been old acquaintances. When they arrived at the depot, and had attended to their luggage, one of the gentlemen inquired, in the hearing of the other, for a cab to take him to a certain street in Charlestown. The other said he purposed going to the same street, and the two engaged the same conveyance. On arriving at the street in question it appeared that they designed to call on the same individual. This strange series of coincidences greatly puzzled both; but their mutual surprise and delight can be imagined but in a degree, when they found that they were brothers, and that they had thus singularly met at the house of a third brother. One of them has been in the service of the Pacha of Egypt for 22 years; the other has spent 16 years in the East Indies, while the third has been in this country during 19 years past. The brothers are natives of Scotland, and have not seen each other for 24 years.

A German girl living in service on the West Side, (Cleveland) last week gave birth to four children at once. One of each sex was still born, but the other two are alive. This is piling it on rather fast for a girl that has not yet found a husband, and we doubt if any man can be found ready to take her to wife.

A Fiend.—A few days since a man, a short distance from Troy, was taking a ride in a sleigh. His horse stepped into a hole in such a manner as to break his leg, when the owner coolly got out of the sleigh, cut off the leg where it was broken, threw it into the gutter, and drove him home upon three legs the remainder of the distance, some two miles. He then sued the town for damages to his horse. We think the town should turn about and send him to the Penitentiary for excessive cruelty.

Singular Delusion.—The New York Sun states that Victor Mix, a resident of Hume, Allegany county, New York, has been seated for the last four weeks upon two dozen eggs, for the purpose of hatching them, by the direction of the spirits!

Destructive Fire—Loss of Blooded Horses and Cattle. PHILADELPHIA, March 16.—This morning about two o'clock, the extensive barn on the Lancaster turnpike, near this city, belonging to Thos. P. Remington, Esq., was totally destroyed by fire, together with a large number of horses and sixty-four head of the best blooded cattle in the country. They had been collected by Mr. Remington at great expense, and the loss will not only be severely felt by Mr. R., but by the farmers generally. The loss is estimated at about $25,000, upon which there is no insurance, his policies having expired about one month since. The fire is attributed to an incendiary, many of whom are prowling about the county. The farmers are in great alarm.

The burning of Thos. P. Remington's barn on the Lancaster pike, and the great loss of valuable cattle, caused much regret. The cattle were all imported stock and of the most valuable description, comprising bulls, cows and calves, of short-horned Durhams, Alderneys, &c., besides four full-blooded horses. Mr. Remington paid much attention to his stock, and his assortment was esteemed as among the best in the country. Out of the seventy head of cattle, all but fourteen perished. Only two of the horses were saved. Mr. R. estimates his loss on the barn at $5,000, and upon the horses and cattle at $15,000,—making a total of $20,000, upon which there is only an insurance of $4,000. He had been for the last five years engaged in collecting and breeding the cattle. The scene during the progress of the conflagration was at times almost terrific. The walls of the structure were of stone. As the doors burned down, the cattle within were visible, writhing in the last agonies of death. All the hay in the barn, some 50 tons, with agricultural machinery, &c., fell a prey to the devouring element. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

The Pennsylvania Iron Interest.—The Hollidaysburg Standard says several iron establishments in that vicinity have been compelled to suspend. Within a few days past the Portage iron works have stopped, and propose remaining so until they dispose of a portion of the large stock of iron now on hand. Messrs. Musselman & Barnitz, of the Gap forge, have ceased operation and advertised their stock for sale on the 19th inst. Frankstown furnace was blown out last week, and will probably not be put in blast again by the present firm, as their case expires in May. Besides these, several others contemplate stopping. These stoppages will, of course, throw a large number of men out of employment.

Heavy Forgeries in Virginia.—Mr. Gishlong, a leading merchant and heavy trader in Bedford county, Virginia, has committed heavy forgeries in Virginia, and left for parts unknown. The extent of the forgeries are variously estimated, some placing them as high as $150,000.

For the Ladies—the Spring Bonnets.—It is stated of the forthcoming new bonnets, that the decided new feature is a point in the middle of the front slightly drooping towards the forehead—not raised, as last season. The inside ruche no longer extends all round the face, but appears only at the sides, making amends, by greater fullness, for its diminished length. The trimmings across the top of the bonnet have also disappeared.

The New British Ministry.—It is stated that Mr. Dallas, our Minister to London, in his dispatches to our government expresses the opinion that the new ministry of England will be more favorable and conciliatory to the United States than the old one. He is also of opinion that it will not, according to present appearances, remain long in power.

The friends of the great religious "revival," at New York, are about to set apart a day of general thanksgiving and prayer. One of the city religious papers claims within the last three weeks about 20,000 persons in various sections of the Union, and of nearly all denominations, who have professed conversion.

Accidents.—The following brace of accidents we clip from the Hollidaysburg Standard:

Burned to Death.—A young woman named Mary Omerman, residing near Tyrone City, this county, was so seriously burned on Monday last week as to cause her death. She was engaged boiling soap, when her clothes accidentally caught fire, and before it could be extinguished she was so seriously burned that she survived her injuries but a few hours.

Shocking Accident.—One of the most terrible, and at the same time singular accidents we ever heard of, occurred near Tyrone Forge, this county, on Friday last. A man named Black, was engaged chopping wood, when the axe glanced and struck him on the leg, near the knee, with such force as to actually entirely sever the limb! He was taken up immediately and carried to a cabin close by. Every effort was made by his comrades to staunch the bleeding, but without avail. The unfortunate man bled to death in fifteen minutes after the occurrence of the accident.

A law has been enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana, providing that any free negro coming into that State shall be seized, and after ten days notice, sold into slavery, half the proceeds to go to the State, the other half to the complainant. The only exception is in favor of negroes actually employed on foreign vessels.

Buchanan Routed! The first State Election for 1858 has passed and gone, and the National Administration has been signally defeated. New Hampshire, the ancient strong-hold of Locofocoism, the home of Franklin Pierce, has spoken in a tone not to be misunderstood. She held her State Election for Governor, &c., last week, and the result is that the Republican candidate for Governor, Hon. William Hild, has been elected by a majority ranging in the neighborhood of 5,000, being a much larger majority than the same party obtained last year. The Councilors are all Republicans, and the Legislature, in both branches, is overwhelmingly in the hands of the same party. The significance of this result is in the fact that a U. S. Senator, for six years, is to be elected by the Legislature just chosen, in the place of Hon. John P. Hale, whose term expires on the Fourth of March next. That gentleman will be re-elected, or some other sound Republican will take his place. The Locofocos tried the Douglas dodge, repudiated Leecompton, but still endorsed the National Administration, going into the contest confident of success. But the people were determined that their verdict should not be mistaken, and so they were "crushed out!"

The New York Town Elections show an extraordinary result. The Republicans have swept the "Rural Districts" of the State like a whirlwind, and where they and the Americans united a like result was achieved. The Tribune says that if the Douglasites elected as Locofocos are taken from the column, there would scarcely be a corporal's guard of Buchanans to be found elected.

THERE IS A NORTH! The revival spirit seems to be increasing throughout the country. The daily secular papers of New York, Philadelphia, and other cities devote a large space to the subject, particularly as connected with the progress of revivals in their respective cities. From the East, North and West, the response comes, as if a mighty flood was overspreading the land. The revival does not seem to have penetrated to the South as yet. Why is this? Surely there is much need of the meek and lowly spirit of Christianity in that section of the Republic, but they seem slow in being impressed with the great awakening. No doubt the great financial troubles of the country have been among the potent means of Providence in directing the minds of the people to the salvation of their souls and to walk uprightly in the sight of God by the saving faith of Jesus Christ. We endorse the suggestion of another, in expressing the hope that this general movement may be the precursor of reform in high places of power; the salutary check of Divine Providence upon corruption in high places; upon fraud and bribery and oppression in all its nameless forms. If so, then our troubles in business and the general disappointment of the high hopes of men in the world's great marts of commerce, will return laden with blessings, and professing his Religion and relying upon what secured loss, shall prove the greatest gain in all parts of this wide Republic and in the world.

The Wrightsville Star says that on Sunday week some twenty-six persons were added to the communion in the Presbyterian Church in that place. On the same day over forty connected themselves with the same denomination in this Borough, and within a few weeks about one hundred have been admitted on probation to our Methodist Church. Other denunciations here have also felt the spirit of God at work in their midst, and many have joined the churches. May the good work go on prospering and in prosper.—York Republican.

Neutrality of the Laborers of Panama.—It is rumored that the New Granadian minister at Paris has signed a treaty with France, securing the entire neutrality of the Isthmus of Panama, and that he has also concluded a like treaty with Russia, through the Russian Ambassador at the Court of France. It is also said, that prior to the recent change in the English Ministry he had negotiated a convention with England for the same purpose, but it is not stated whether it has been actually signed or not.

A delegation of Sioux Indians, from Minnesota, passed through York on Saturday week, on their way to Washington. They numbered some twenty-eight, and included Chiefs, Braves and Warriors of the tribe, and were accompanied by interpreters and attendants. The Sioux have always been regarded as one of the most powerful and warlike tribes of the West, and have figured considerably in the stirring events which marked the earlier history of the western territory.

The Armstrong County Court House, at Kittanning, Pa., was entirely destroyed by fire a few days ago, just a few minutes after the court had adjourned. The building was comparatively new, cost over twenty thousand dollars, and was uninsured.

Communications by Telegraph.—A new feature of the prayer meetings, at New York, is the sending of telegraphic despatches to the brethren elsewhere, and the receipt of answers, generally embodying some quotation from the Bible. Communications of this character passed between the congregation of the Fulton Street Church, and the prayer meeting in Jayne's Hall, Philadelphia, on Sunday. Truly, wonders never cease.

Collision on the Ohio—Six Lives Lost. CINCINNATI, March 15.—The steamer Great Western and Princess came in collision at three o'clock on Saturday morning, opposite Raleigh, Kentucky. The Princess sank in ten minutes on the hurricane deck. The cabin passengers on the Princess were saved, together with the books and baggage. One woman and two children, deck passengers, and three of the deck hands were drowned.

From Utah. St. Louis, March 15.—Mr. Hartwell, Secretary of the Territory of Utah, has arrived here. He left the camp January 26th, when the troops were in a comfortable condition and in excellent health, there being only four deaths since the arrival of the command. It was thought the entrance to the valley would be made by another route, 100 miles longer, but offering no obstructions of any magnitude. The principal Utah Indians had been to the camp, and gave assurance of the peaceable intentions of the Indians toward the Americans. Mr. Hartwell met with no snow, and the appearance of grass was expected at an unusually early period.

Exciting Scene in the Senate. Passage between Senators Green and Cameron—The Lie Direct—Almost a Fight—The Gallant Senators Apologize. WASHINGTON, March 16.—The attempt in the Senate to come to a vote on the Kansas question led to the session being protracted all night. After midnight the following scene occurred:

Mr. Green declared that unless he could have a distinct understanding that the vote shall be taken on Monday he would go on.

Mr. Cameron said he was disgusted with these fruitless attempts. Who is the gentleman from Missouri, Mr. Green, he asked. Is he the commander of the Senate majority that adjourned over from Thursday to Tuesday to attend the political pageant at Richmond?

Mr. Green—That is not true.

Mr. Cameron—Do I understand the gentleman to say that I state what is not true?

Mr. Green—I said so.

Mr. Cameron—The Senator has applied to me harsh language and I will also use harsh terms. It is an untruth.

Mr. Green—You're a liar.

Mr. Cameron asked pardon of the Senate for having done what the Senate says is not right, though he still thought he was not wrong. For anything I have said to that gentleman I am responsible for.

Mr. Green denied that he had arrogated to himself the duty to members. The Senator does me injustice. He knows he does me injustice. He (Mr. Green) was man enough to meet him or any other. The slander of the Senator will recoil on his own head.

Mr. Green said he had said enough to the Senator in this chamber. Out of the chamber he would use a more appropriate epithet—the epithet which belongs to the West. He would not infringe upon the propriety of the Senate. If there is animosity to settle, it must be done outside. He did not go to that side of the chamber to dictate, but to ask when it would be agreeable for them to vote. He did not go individually, but as an agent of the committee. He would settle the matter with the Senator in five minutes, (snapping his fingers as he spoke.)

Mr. Cameron said the Senator's remarks had no effect upon him, as he was able to take care of himself. He repeated that all this discussion had been protected by them.

The passage between Mr. Green and Mr. Cameron produced complete stillness in the Senate. Mr. Green exhibited the most irritation of the two. Mr. Cameron was cool, and to an unprejudiced looker on seemed to have the best side of the case. The difficulty was a mere interlude, which subsided as rapidly as it arose.

The Senate continued in session till half past six o'clock in the morning, when an adjournment till twelve o'clock was carried.

The following is the account of what passed between them, on the following day:

Mr. Green and Mr. Cameron then apologized to the Senate.

Mr. Green said, after consultation with a number of his friends, he desired to make a personal explanation. He was said to have used "language last night which was understood as personal. If so, he now withdrew it."

Mr. Cameron said he might have come into the Senate last night under a wrong impression. He had no disrespectful feelings towards the Senator from Missouri. He could have none. In common with all Senators he respected that gentleman, and did not intend anything disrespectful towards him.

Mr. Green rose as if to say more, but the friends of both wished no more to be said upon either side, and the matter was dropped.

Not very Particular. Looking over the proceedings of the Democratic Convention held at Harrisburg last week, we find the following:

"Mr. Cassidy, of Philadelphia, addressed the Convention. He gave his adhesion to the report of the Committee. The Philadelphia delegation, he said, would stand by Mr. Buchanan and his policy. Mr. Buchanan had no stronger friends than the Philadelphia delegation. He said, by authority, that William A. Porter would stand on any platform the Convention might adopt."

This announcement, of course, secured Mr. Porter's nomination. Now, he is a democrat as is a democrat, ready to stand on any platform, for popular sovereignty—for Democratic principles—for Buchanan Federalism or against Buchanan Federalism—for slavery or against slavery—for Republican Government or against Republican Government—for despotism or against despotism—anything or nothing, provided it is labelled "democracy" and will secure the said Wm. A. Porter's election to the Supreme bench!

It remains to be seen whether the people of Pennsylvania will elect a man Supreme Judge whose principles are entirely in charge of a party caucus.

The principal Utah Indians had been to the camp, and gave assurance of the peaceable intentions of the Indians toward the Americans. Mr. Hartwell met with no snow, and the appearance of grass was expected at an unusually early period.

Collision on the Ohio—Six Lives Lost. CINCINNATI, March 15.—The steamer Great Western and Princess came in collision at three o'clock on Saturday morning, opposite Raleigh, Kentucky. The Princess sank in ten minutes on the hurricane deck. The cabin passengers on the Princess were saved, together with the books and baggage. One woman and two children, deck passengers, and three of the deck hands were drowned.

From Utah. St. Louis, March 15.—Mr. Hartwell, Secretary of the Territory of Utah, has arrived here. He left the camp January 26th, when the troops were in a comfortable condition and in excellent health, there being only four deaths since the arrival of the command. It was thought the entrance to the valley would be made by another route, 100 miles longer, but offering no obstructions of any magnitude. The principal Utah Indians had been to the camp, and gave assurance of the peaceable intentions of the Indians toward the Americans. Mr. Hartwell met with no snow, and the appearance of grass was expected at an unusually early period.

Female Sauson.

Great Excitement at Cuyahoga Falls.—A correspondent writes us that the citizens of Cuyahoga Falls were last Saturday surprised by the sudden appearance in the street of some forty "female women," armed with axes, hatchets, hammers, &c. The curiously armed and equipped females immediately proceeded to the saloons over the postoffice—the doors of which were barred against them. They demanded admission and whatever of the ardent the premises contained. Both requests were denied. But as "Hell hath no fury like a woman (as) cornet," they soon chopped the doors down and made a complete wreck of the establishment. They then marched to the other saloon and soon mangled several barrels of "Lawry's best" with the waters of the dark rolling Cuyahoga. At the hotel the amazons met with a rather warm reception—a plentiful sprinkling of hot and cold water, keeping them at bay for some time. However, they effected an entrance, but spared the landlord's ale on the plain-dealer.

Disgusting Fight between Two Human Brutes.

Two vile wretches, named Patrick Madocks and Michael Eiske, met by agreement in Millcreek Valley, on Sunday afternoon, and participated in what is known as a "rough-and-tumble" fight. No two bull dogs ever fought more savagely or brutally. Eiske bit one of Madocks's fingers to the bone, when the latter snapped off a portion of his adversary's ear, and inserting his teeth in his nose, arms and cheeks, chewed his flesh as a ravenous jackal would a corpse, and had nearly gouged out one of his eyes, when Eiske sunk down bleeding, mangled and insensible, at the feet of Madocks, who was then proclaimed victor by his friends. Some four hundred brutes were on the ground and admired the fight hugely, and were greatly excited during its progress.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Barbaric Plot.—We have already alluded to the thousand dollar wager made by John Travis, that he will shoot three oranges from the head and hands of a boy—distance thirty feet—weapon, a pistol. When we reflect that the tremor or movement of a muscle may be sufficient to cause a premature discharge, and that the deviation of the fraction of an inch to the right might terminate fatally in the hit, the feat appears as wonderful as it is certainly novel. Travis formerly resided in Saratoga. The oranges are each to be two and a quarter inches in diameter; one is placed on the top of his head, and one on the back of each hand, the arms being extended. In this position, at the distance of ten paces, or thirty feet, facing the shooter, and with no intervening object, Captain John Travis proposes to hit the oranges, and has only three shots to hit three oranges.

The boy who is to support the oranges is ten years of age, and a bright and sprightly lad. He has every confidence in the ability of Capt. Travis to hit each object, and has equally as much in his own nerve which cannot be surpassed. He is now under daily training. The boy's feet are placed twelve inches apart and his hands under his hips. The Captain shoots through the angle made by the bending of the arms and between the feet. This is done to accustom the boy to the firing, and if possible, give him more confidence and make him feel at ease. The little fellow is a native of Louisville, and his mother is always present during the practice. She is entirely satisfied that it will result in safety to her son. This is probably the most dangerous feat ever undertaken by any man in this country.—Albany Knickerbocker, March 10.

Bursting of a Grindstone.—On Friday afternoon, about two o'clock, John Birch, an Englishman, about 45 years of age, was instantly killed by the bursting or breaking of a large grindstone, in the establishment of Messrs. Brown & Tetley, Wood street. He was engaged in grinding files at the time of the accident. Although warned not to do so, Birch put on an extra pulley in order to increase the velocity of the stone, which is driven by steam. The stone was a very large one, and the increased speed, as it is stated, caused it to burst into four pieces. Birch was thrown from his seat, his forehead cut open, his nose split, and one of his eyes knocked out.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

A Good Boy.—A lad named O'Brien, who obtains a livelihood by peddling apples on the Elvira cars, found a few days since, a package of bank notes which had been lost in the cars by a Mr. Bishop, who had brought the money from Cleveland for H. E. Mussey, of Elvira. The lad was so elated at his good fortune that he took the money to bed with him and sat up all night watching it. Next day it was given to Mr. Mussey, when the lad was rewarded with a suit of clothes and 100 acres of land. We understand that Mr. Mussey also offered to give the boy a thorough business education, but the father declined for the present, as he did not wish to part with him.

Heavy Verdict for Damages.—The Brooklyn Star, of Saturday, says: Miles Cardiff obtained a verdict of $800 damages, in the City Court, yesterday, against Philip S. Paquay, under the following circumstances: Cardiff keeps a leather store in New York. The plaintiff is a shoemaker, and was in the habit of coming to the store for scraps of leather. One day in August last he came in as usual and rested his hand upon what he supposed to be the counter. A leather-cutting machine having been introduced into the counter, of which he was not aware, and the knife being set in motion, two of his fingers were cut off. For these injuries he sued for $2000 damages. The jury brought in a verdict of $800 damages for plaintiff.

Sensible Inquiry.—The unfortunate Turk, who is at present in the claws of a Committee of Council members, is said to have inquired of the interpreter: "What makes these men spit so eternally?" In Turkey, and indeed in Europe generally, no man spits in the presence of another excepting in the public street and with his hand averted.—New York Sun.

An Unevenable Distinction.—It is stated, on what appears to be undoubted authority, that the city of Cincinnati, Ohio, contains more groceries than any other city in the United States, except New York.

Further from Utah.

Mormon Memorial.—We have received, by way of California, files of the Deseret News to the 17th of January inclusive, not as late, however, as already received direct. It is reported that Brigham Young has been in fighting the Oregon Indians to rebel. He has offered to pay them a certain sum per head for every horse or mule they may capture and bring to him. A regular express is continually running between Salt Lake City and Oregon territory.

The San Diego Herald gives currency to a report that the Mormons had actually commenced moving towards Northern Mexico.

The tone of the Mormon sermons delivered in the Tabernacle is nearly the same as before, except that Brigham Young seems to use less violent language. The other preachers continue to preach against the United States just as they did four months ago.

The Extra News, of the 7th of January, contains a copy of a memorial addressed by the Territorial Legislature of Utah to the Congress of the United States. This document recites the alleged wrongs of the Saints, and calls upon the President to restore to the Mormons their lost property in Missouri, and punish the murderers of the prophet Joseph Smith and the assassins of Parley P. Pratt. They say if the government will restore their constitutional rights, withdraw their invading army, and permit them to make their own official appointments, all will be right; but intimate that unless this be done trouble will come of it.

From New Mexico—Supplies for the Army—the Indians, &c.

St. Louis, March 16.—The New Mexican mail of the 15th ult., has arrived. Capt. Marey would leave about the 1st of March for Camp Scott, taking flour, salt, corn and animals. As he will also take with him a number of wagons, he intends to return via Reno's, taking a more circuitous northerly route than previously traveled. He is reported to have said that supplies can be furnished to Camp Scott much easier and quicker from New Mexico than elsewhere.

The Legislature of New Mexico passed resolutions complimentary to the officers of the army, and recommending several promotions in the event of an increase of the army.

The Santa Fe Gazette says that the chief of the Salt Lake and Utah Indians had visited the Dakota Indians in Mexico, with a view to induce them to join the Mormons, stating that the Mormons could poison the air, so that their enemies would die, and that all the troops of the government would be destroyed. The mission was unsuccessful.

Kit Carson had concluded a treaty between the Matsie Indians, Arapahoes and Pueblos. They agree to take side with the United States in the event of an issue between them and the people of any Territory, and to render all the aid they can towards suppressing rebellion.

A Fighting Clergyman.—Met Their Match.—The Wisconsin Pioneer mentions a little affair that came off in Plover. There having been a revival there, and some young bloods having fancied themselves insulted by the preacher, they procured a black snake whip, proceeded to the reverend gentleman's premises, called him out and undertook to square accounts by the application of the snake to his reverence's back. With quick perception, and a good share of bodily as well as mental vigor, the gentleman parried off the blows, retreated to the house, armed himself with a good shillelagh, and being reinforced by a couple of reverend friends, one with a gun and the other with a piteifol, compelled the assailants to return without effecting the settlement in the manner they had proposed.

How to Promote Health.—American mothers are deemed to early graves, in consequence of their sedentary indoor employment. Every consideration of affection, duty, and the preservation of a healthy posterity, should prompt the heads of families, and others, to assist in averting results as disastrous to the well-being of society at large. Thousands of house-wives have recently found ample leisure for healthy outdoor exercise, by purchasing and using one of GROVER & BAKER'S Family Sewing Machines, by which they have been enabled to do all their sewing, in a stranger and more beautiful style than they could have done by hand. The transition from the slavery of the needle to the joyous exercise of the largest liberty, has had the happiest effect upon the health and temper of the fair possessors of the GROVER & BAKER machine, and every woman who is practically familiar with their value, regards them with great favor, as the only Missionary Agent that is at all likely to emancipate the sisterhood from the slavery of the needle.

A Town Purchased by one Man.—The village of Lewisville, Monongahela county, Virginia, was purchased a few days since by Jonathan McKelock. The purchase included a very valuable mill property, store house and several dwellings, together with a well improved farm of about seven to five acres. The sum paid was $10,000 cash.

A Handsome Girl.—It is mentioned in the English papers that Queen Victoria bore personally all the expenses of her daughter's wedding, and presented to the young couple intact the £40,000 voted by Parliament for the expenses.

Singular Accident.—In Columbus, Ga., on the 27th ult., a little girl by the name of Georgiana Rowell, the daughter of a poor widow, in a playful mood was running from a sister, when she tripped and fell, and having in her hand an old knife which had been worn to a point, it entered her neck, severing the jugular vein, causing her death almost instantaneously.

A Promising School.—Out of 85 scholars in a school in Cuyahoga county, Ohio, 9 of the boys are regular tobacco chewers, and 5 of the girls are smokers.

A Thriving Town.

The Leavenworth (Kansas) Ledger says of it at place:

"Here you will find graded streets and sidewalks paved with two inch cotton wood plank; here you will find from six to ten thousand peop—not including those, of which staple there are large quantities.—Here you will find free negroes and free men, and free women and free babies, live yankees with onions and wooden nutmegs in their pockets, full blooded Virginians in the fastest families of Virginia, big raw boned Kentuckians, from within six miles of Lexington, Ky., live Yorkers all the way from New York State, bow legged Dutch men and lopped eared Irish. Humanity may be found here in any form. Everything else may be found here in the same profusion.

"City lots ranging from five hundred to five thousand dollars, big houses and small houses, and every body with plenty of money and no poor kin." Then we have all kinds of business, from the boot black to the black leg, from the liquor seller to the liquor drinker, from the land agent to the lawyer, from the harness maker to the horse doctor, merchants, mechanics, traders, speculators, men doing all kinds of business, men doing no business at all. If a man cannot find what he wants in Leavenworth then he cannot find it anywhere."

Italian Malefactors for America.

There having recently been landed at Liverpool fourteen Italians, of suspicious character, the British charge at Constantinople, from whence they were shipped, inquired into the matter, and in replying to his government says:

"These fourteen were the most respectable portion of a total number of eight hundred persons who have, since May last, been shipped from this port for various parts of the world, with the intent of purging this country of a horde of malefactors who had become the scourge of society. The ports contributed £14 towards the passage of those sent to England, £3 more were paid towards it out of a subscription raised by the Italian Liberty Society, and another sum of 30 francs was afforded to them out of the same fund, payable by the captain on landing them. Dr. Chiarini asserts that Her Majesty's ambassador, had promised to write to the authorities at Liverpool, to request them to facilitate the passage of these persons to America or Australia."

A Chloroform Robbery.—Some time during Friday night some person or persons unknown entered the house of Thomas Miller Esq., late postmaster at Columbus, Ohio, and after administering chloroform to the entire family, six in number, they proceeded to search the house and remove all valuables that could be found. Eight thousand dollars' worth of draft were abstracted from Mr. M.'s desk, his pocket-book containing money and notes, his gold watch and chain, and considerable jewelry, &c. The family knew nothing of the outrage until next morning. When Mr. M. awoke he discovered a peculiar smell in his room, and upon sitting up in bed found upon his pillow the stains of chloroform.

Singular Affair.—The Trieste Gazette relates the following singular story: One of the noblest families of Verona has just learned that it has been the victim of an audacious fraud. The heir to the property having many years ago been put out to nurse, fell and broke his arm. Soon after, the mother arrived to visit her infant. The nurse, afraid of revealing the truth, presented her own child instead of the little sufferer. The fraud succeeded, and the nurse allowed it to continue. The young peasant accordingly received the education of a noble, and the noble was brought up to follow the plow. It was but a few days ago that the nurse, on her death bed, confessed her crime. The peasant, her son, is now married to a noble lady, and it is not known how the interest engaged in the matter can be fairly conciliated.

MONEY WANTED!

PERSONS desiring to invest money safely and profitably, and at the same time free from all legal taxes, can make an excellent investment by calling on the undersigned, President of the Gettysburg Railroad Company, or any of its Managers. The Gettysburg Railroad Company have Bonds, secured by a Mortgage on their property, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of February and August in each year until due. They have sold some of the Bonds and met the interest falling due on them the last inst., promptly, by setting apart a fund for that purpose. The Bonds are now selling at 80 per cent. of their par value, and thus the holder will realize seven and one half per cent. interest per annum, payable every six months without fail; and also, without doubt, make twenty-five per cent. on his investment in a year or two by the Bonds going up to par.
The Road is now in operation as far as New Oxford and bringing in a profitable revenue. From the business on that portion alone, it is confidently expected that more than sufficient will be realized to pay the interest on all the Bonds issued, after defraying all expenses. Subscription can be made for Bonds payable in installments.
